

Jason S. Thompson CPA/ABV, ASA, CFE, CFF

Partner, Director of Valuation and Litigation Services

In his roles as Partner and Director of Valuation and Litigation Services for Sponsel CPA Group, Jason Thompson provides strategic counsel to business owners, buyers, sellers and other third parties primarily in the manufacturing and distribution, construction, professional service and retail industries. He specializes in the valuation of privately held businesses, partial ownership interests in privately held businesses and intangible assets. He routinely serves as an expert witness in valuation and an array of other financial matters including economic damage analysis, lost profits, lost business value and fraud/forensic accounting investigations.

Jason has over 20 years of professional experience in Public Accounting, a majority of that focused on valuation and litigation services. He is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA), member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), member of the Indiana CPA Society (INCPAS), has received an Accreditation in Business Valuation (ABV) from the AICPA, is an Accredited Senior Appraiser (ASA) of the American Society of Appraisers and is a member of the Institute of Business Appraisers. Jason is also a Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE) and has a Certification in Financial Forensics (CFF). He also received the Super CPA award from Indiana Business Magazine in 2008.

Jason is a graduate of Indiana University where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in accounting. Active in the community, he volunteers his time as a board member for Reach For Youth, an Indianapolis not-for-profit organization serving youth and their families.

