

Kristen Lampkin is a Senior Talent Partner at Finish Line Inc., where she is involved in talent assessment, coaching and influencing managers, performance management, employee relations, training and development, and diversity and inclusion.

Kristen currently serves as a board member for Women for Change Coaching Community and is the Director of Diversity and Inclusion on the IndySHRM Board. She is also active member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated and the Indianapolis Urban League young professionals, “The Exchange.”

In 2017 she was recognized at the HR Indiana Annual Conference by the Indiana State Counsel- Affiliate of SHRM (Society for Human Resource Management) as Volunteer Leader of the Year (Chapters), and in 2018 United Way of Central Indiana recognized Kristen as one of United Way's 100 Heroes.

Kristen received her MBA from Kaplan University and Bachelor of Arts in Communication Studies from Ball State University. She enjoys spending time husband and loves ones, has passion for giving back to the community, and supporting equality for all. Her motto is, “I am COMMITTED to showing you the BEST me, while bringing out the BEST you!”